OMF International

Supported by Grace since 2011

Hailing from Glen Ellyn, Brian graduated from ISU and later Wheaton in '04, sensing a strong leading to student ministry or missions. After some years as a youth pastor he stepped out in order to pursue God's calling towards missions in Thailand. Bekah grew up as an MK in Irian Jaya, Indonesia, graduated from Grace College, then taught at Faith Academy in the Philippines for two years. She returned to the U.S. for graduate studies at Moody before they became appointees with OMF in November of 2008.

The Farbers arrived in Lopburi, Thailand in 2011 and began a year of language study. They then plan to begin church-planting among the Central Thai people, who are listed as one of the 100-most-unreached people groups by Joshua Project. Their team will be determined while they are in language school.
