Worldteam

Supported by Grace Church since 1969

The Hannoes have been serving with Worldteam for more than 40 years. For the past 20 they have been working among Muslims in London, England. Prior to this they served in Gang's native country of Suriname, South America, where they did Bible Studies, family counseling, youth and prison ministries, and radio evangelism for more than 14 years.

Their current ministry is church planting among Muslims in the South West area of London. The goal is to see clusters of churches planted among Muslim background believers. They have three teams of two couples each in three parts of London.

Gangadin was born of Hindu parents whose ancestors migrated from India to Suriname. Through the witness of a Christian missionary, Gang gave his life to Christ at the age of 22. While in theological school in India, Gang met and married his wife Farhat (Julie). Julie was born to Christian parents in the city of Lucknow, India, but committed her life to Christ while a professor of Botany at a girl's college.
