Navigators

Supported by Grace (Home Church) since
December 2005

Shayna grew up on a farm in Tremont, IL, and decided to fully follow God after her father died when she was a freshman in college. She became involved with Navigators at ISU and went on staff with them as soon as she graduated.

She now works with college students at the Univ. of South Carolina in Columbia, building friendships and sharing the gospel with the lost. She helps students, focusing much time on freshmen women, to grow closer to Jesus through Bible studies and one-on-one mentoring or discipling. Shayna loves to give her life to spiritually hungry students who she can teach and train to follow Jesus, give their lives to others, and reproduce spiritually. Shayna also travels to other parts of the US and around the world to serve during the summers.
