

So What? _____

"The Praiseworthy Woman"

May 10 , 2015

Proverbs 31:10-31

My Sermon Notes

Key Thought: Charm can mislead and beauty soon fades. The woman to be _____ and _____ is the woman _____

I. _____ is a portrait of _____

A. The FDFOC _____

B. The FDFOC _____

C. The FDFOC _____

D. The FDFOC _____

E. The FDFOC _____

II. _____ is affected when a _____

_____!

A. Praising _____

B. Praising _____

C. Praising _____

III. The praiseworthy woman is _____

A. She is _____

B. She _____

C. She is _____

D. She is _____

TIP Sheet (Take It Personal)

Use the below questions to aid you in making personal application of your study in the Word.

The Praiseworthy Woman

Proverbs 31:10-31

1. What does the instruction “fear God” mean to you?

2. What do the following verses reveal to us about a healthy fear of God?
Ephesians 2:4-5
Romans 8:15
1 John 4:18
Psalm 31:19
Revelation 15:4

3. Proverbs 31:30 says that a woman who fears God is to be praised.
Why do you think God instructs us to praise such a person?

What are the results of such praise?

4. When was the last time you gave genuine praise to a person worthy of such praise?

What was their response?

How did you feel?

5. What traits does a praiseworthy person possess?
Hint, look at the following verses from Proverbs 31. (17, 20, 25-27)

4. How do the above traits compare with the fruit of the Spirit given in Galatians 5:22-23?

5. What action steps is God impressing upon you as a result of this study?